Campaign theme: Cooperation with an environmental protection organization

The young people have chosen GLOBAL 2000.

Global 2000 is the leading environmental protection organization in Austria.

Since 1982, GLOBAL 2000 has been fighting as Austria's leading environmental protection organization for an intact environment, a sustainable society, and sustainable business practices.

GLOBAL 2000 offers various workshops for young volunteers, who then conduct workshops themselves in schools (peer to peer). It is planned that in the future, interested Deaf young people will be able to work at schools with Deaf students. For the enrollment workshops at Global 2000, sign language interpreters are organized together with equalizers for Deaf participants.

Production of 3 VLOGS

Finally, the youth group of equalizent produced 3 short VLOGS with their mobile phone camera. This is meant to show that videos can be made quickly and easily and edited by oneself. Anyone can easily do this themselves. The important thing is the message.

With many thanks to (in front of and behind the cameras): Jenan, Filip, Bohdan, Albraa, Elva, Zahkhar, Kenan, Yinkai, Milana

The first video shows an everyday scene. Break time is over. The trash is simply thrown on the ground. The message is: There is no Plan B for planet Earth. Be mindful in your everyday life — for example, don't leave your trash behind. Dispose of it in the appropriate containers. Let's do it!

Vlog 2

The second video continues with the message: There is no Plan B for planet Earth. Positive images of a healthy environment are shown. This is what we want to preserve. Let's do it!

Vlog 3

The third video documents the exchange meeting of the youth group (Deaf Climate Action) with Global2000. The message is: Get in touch with environmental organizations in your region. Together, a lot is possible! Let's do it!
